FOUNDER'S MESSAGE

2018 was IPPL's 45th year since I founded the organization while living in Thailand. The intervening years have seen us secure bans on export of monkeys from five nations and get several wildlife traffickers prosecuted and sent to prison. We have worked with small primate protection groups and sanctuaries in many nations and seen them grow big and strong. These Organizations are a source of pride for me and my staff. Thank you so much for all who played a part in this in any way, whether by writing a letter, signing a petition, or making a donation. I look forward to working with all of you in 2019!

2018 YEAR IN REVIEW

IPPL Supporters Conference: In April, IPPL was host to its 15th Biennial Supporters' Conference. Held at the sanctuary Headquarters in Summerville, SC, over 100 supporters were in attendance. Many of our Global Partners flew in from Cameroon, Indonesia, the U.K. Peru, Nigeria, Thailand, and other countries to share unforgettable stories of their never-ending efforts to save primates.

Sad Farewells: This year we were deeply saddened by the loss of two of our wonderful gibbons and two of our entertaining Asian otters.

Umatilla, affectionately called Uma, was born in 1985. She arrived with her mate Scrappy in 2007 after being confiscated from an inferior zoo. Uma and Scrappy live happily at IPPL until October of this year.

Arung Rangsi, ((Ruie)), was IPPL's first lab gibbon who won the hearts of everyone who knew him – especially Shirley who called him her “heart gibbon”. Born in a lab in 1979, he was rejected by his mother. Suffering and surviving in the lab, Ruie finally knew a glorious life when he came to IPPL in 1981. He and his mate, Shanti were together until he left us in December.

Satu, one of our Asian otters, arrived at IPPL with his brother in 2009 after being retired from Monterey Bay Aquarium. During his life with us, Satu outlived three mates. At 17, he was the oldest otter we have ever had.

Bali otter was born in a zoo in 2003. He spent 10 years in different zoo before arriving at IPPL in 2013. Soon after, was paired with Bubbins. They lived and played together until Bubbins passed in 2017. A favorite with staff, Bali left us earlier this year.

Animal Rights National Conference: The 2018 Animal Rights Conference connected nearly 2,000 animal rights activists in Los Angeles, CA in June. It is the largest and longest-running animal rights gathering in the world. Attendees learned about issues and movement progress, shared skills, networked and were inspired by 180 presenters. In addition to individuals, attendees represented 90 organizations from 18 countries. For 12 years, IPPL has been a sponsor and Shirley McGreal has made presentations each year.

Small Grants Program In 1999, IPPL formalized its financial aid to overseas organizations by establishing a Small Grant Program. The recipients of these grants, who have come to be known as our “Global Partners”, are often in desperate need of financial assistance. Thanks, largely to individual donors, this year IPPL awarded 29 small grants totaling $152,500 were given to the following organizations.

In Africa: Ape Action Africa, Cameroon ▪ Sanaga Yong, Cameroon - Pandrilus, Drill Ranch, Nigeria ▪ Limbe Wildlife Center, Cameroon ▪ J..A.C.K., Democratic Republic of Congo ▪ RC, Libera Chimp Rescue ▪ Conserv Congo ▪ C.A.R.E. and Vervet Monkey Foundation, South Africa and Center for Chimpanzee Care, Guinea.

In Asia: PROFAUNA, Indonesia ▪ Wildlife Watch Group, Nepal ▪ Douc Langur Foundation and Wildlife at Risk in Vietnam ▪ Little Fireface Project, Indonesia ▪ Huro Gibbons Project, India and Wildlife Friends Foundation of Thailand.

In Central and South America: Friends of Inti Wara Yassi, Bolivia ▪ Sumak Allpa, Ecuador ▪ Chilean Primate Rescue Center, Chile ▪ Fundacion Entropika, Brazil, and Fundacion Proyecto Primates in Columbia

As IPPL closes the chapter on 2018, we want to say how grateful we are to everyone who supports us throughout the year. Thanks to you, our supporters - we know that 2019 will be just as successful!

Mission:
Protecting the world's remaining primates, great and small.
